HOPE for Children

“My house parents treated me like their own child from the first time we met.”

For most of us, it’s difficult to imagine the kinds of hardship some children endure. In their short lifetimes, they may have known nothing but neglect, abandonment, abuse or homelessness.

Christian City Children’s Village offers these children a safe haven where they can experience security, support, healing, and love—sometimes, for the very first time.

Our family-structured homes have full-time house parents, and children receive the support they need to heal and grow emotionally, physically, and spiritually. Children experience life-changing hope at Christian City Children’s Village.
