Benefiting Christian City's Safe Place Runaway & Homeless Youth Program, which rescues youth from the streets and out of the reach of sex traffickers.

Since its inception in 1983, Safe Place has grown to serve 1,500 communities across the United States. Christian City is a licensed Safe Place agency for runaway and homeless youth across much of metro Atlanta. Christian City serves through partnerships with site locations such as QuikTrip gas stations, metro Atlanta YMCAs, and some fire stations in the following counties: Fulton, Douglas, Carroll, Fayette, Coweta, DeKalb, and Cobb. Youth in crisis can text for help or go to a location where they see the yellow Safe Place signage. Teens can also text the word "safe" and their current address to 4HELP (44357) or call 770-964-3301 for immediate assistance. A Safe Place representative from Christian City will reach the youth within an hour and bring them to safety at the Children's Village.

For more information about Safe Place and all the Children and Family programs at Christian City, visit christiancity.org/children-services.

The Christian City Teen Board is focused on raising awareness and funding for Christian City's Children and Family Programs. High school students from across metro Atlanta meet monthly to learn about philanthropy and board service. Interested teens may apply for membership by contacting Lissa Rand at Erand@christiancity.org or 770-703-2636.

2022-23 members of the Christian City Teen Board are: Ava Aleman, Ava Brown, Hannah Claire Brown, Scarlett Castiloo, Ansley Coleman, Margaret Howell, Sheffield Howell, Gill Huffard, Jaq Kellet, Mary Elizabeth Kirkpatrick, Patrick Lee, Bailey Moffett, and Isabella Moffett.
